Seminar-Workshop on Patent Drafting for the Academe, Researchers, and Inventors

The seminar-workshop was a 3 day activity done last November 2-4, 2016 at the Audio Visual Education Center (AVEC), University of Rizal System, Morong, Rizal Campus. The invited guest speaker and lecturer was Engr Emmanuel M. Mendoza from the Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines (IPOPIL). There were 40 attendees of the activity which includes 32 faculty researchers from the 10 campuses of the University and 8 RDEP staff who serves as the Committee of the program. The activity was formally opened with a prayer by Prof. Thelma Cruz. The welcome message, introduction of participants and guest speaker was done by Dr. Namerod F. Mateo, Vice President for Research Development, Extension, and Production. The first day started with the overview of the Intellectual Property Office and Intellectual Property Rights. It was followed by the discussion on trademarks, copyrights and related rights. In the afternoon topics on patentability requirements, patent granting procedure, requirements for registration of utility model and industrial designs, and basic patent search lecture and hands-on were discussed by Engr Mendoza.

The second lecture of Engr. Mendoza covered introduction to drafting of specification, claim drafting of actual technology, claim drafting and critiquing, introduction to drafting of specification, and claim drafting of actual technology.

The third day is the continuation of drafting specification and claims on actual technology. Engr Mendoza also facilitated the preliminary evaluation of drafted specifications, claims, drawings of technologies. The participants were asked to write a draft of their application papers for invention, utility models, and industrial designs. Presentation / critiquing of specification on actual technology drafted by participants and researchers was done after the lunch break. Engr Mendoza also introduced to the participants the proper way of accomplishing the application forms for invention, utility models, and industrial design. There were 14 utility models, 6 industrial designs, 2 inventions, and 2 trademarks that can be filed at the IPOPILS as an output of the activity. The program ended with the closing remarks delivered by Dr. Allan E. Conde, the Campus Director of URS Morong, Rizal.--
